TO RACE OR NOT TO RACE.

That is The Question. Whether 'Tis Better To Plank Down The Coin and Make It Go

OR TO FACE THE HUMILITY?

"Plank down the coin," say, there's the rub. If it be true that God loves a cheerful giver, it may be equally true that the Devil loves a shortskeat. The fact that men are usually said to be close-fisted tight-wads does not make it so. No one knows the other fellow's business as well as the fellow knows it himself. His intentions may be the very best; when things are coming his way and victory is perched upon his banner you find him on the giving hand; his sky may not have the silver lining yours has and the lining you imagine you discern upon his.

But the public wants to know what progress, if any, is being made toward the great automobile races scheduled for the last of March. It is the province and purpose of the Daily News to give out just such information and no news of a legitimate character will be withheld.

The fund which is being solicited is growing apace but the minimum requirement has not yet been reached. The contributions were started a little low and a goodly number who were confidently expected to contribute liberally gave sparingly, while others whom they expected to chip in have so far failed to do so at all.

Some who it is thought will feel it incumbent upon them to contribute are dilatatory, and in the meantime the committee are wasting time and worrying; their's is a work of supererogation, and they should not be made to go over and over the field, once ought to be sufficient. Their time is valuable to them and it is asking too much to lung back and have them canvas and recanvas the territory.

If you have not already contributed toward the race meet, do so at once, so that it may be definitely settled whether the race will be held, and the advertising of it commenced.

If the Daily News knew of some appeal to make, which would arouse and stimulate your latent civic pride, and cause you to warm up to the importance of the meet, it would not hesitate to make the appeal. The thoughtless and the superficial ought to see at a glance that an annual automobile race meeting on Daytona Beach would give this matchless city advertising around the world. Previous racing events put Daytona in the lime-light, in the world's eye; it would be difficult to estimate the value of such advertising. What is it worth to blazon to the world that every word record for speed as broken on Daytona Beach? It not only gives Americans, but foreigners, a longing to bring their machines here to see for themselves.

Here is the list of contributors, with the amounts, up till today. It is hoped that in a day or so the list may be completed, and a very important addition made to it:

BIRD LIFE TO BE PROTECTED.

Noticeable Increase of Aquatic Bird Life as Result of Warden's Vigilance.

THE BIRDS ARE BECOMING TAME.

The department of agriculture at Washington through Captain Paetiti has recently placed five large signs at prominent points on Mosquito Inlet reservation. The signs are about five by seven feet, supported by four posts and firmly braced. One is at Hawks park, one opposite the Ocean house, New Smymna; one at Mosquito inlet, one at Live Oak point and one at Little Pelican island north of Port Orange, all being near the main channel of the Halifax and Hillsboro rivers. The reservation was created as a preserve and breeding ground for native aquatic birds. Already a very marked increase in bird life is apparent in the colonies of pelicans, gulls and terns about the inlet. White cranes, blue herons, gannets and wood ibis are increasing in numbers and show less fear than formerly. Request having been made of the warden as to whether ducks could be killed on the reservation he communicated with the department for advice on this subject and has been instructed to permit no shooting whatever on the reservation and to cause the arrest of any one found using fire arms within its limits.

There are now twenty-three national reservations in the United States for the protection of birds, nine of which were formed the past year. These nine are at Tortugas Keys and Key West, Florida; Mosquito inlet, east coast of Florida; Lower Klamath lake, Oregon; Chase lake, Dakota; Pine Island, Mat-lacha pass and Palma Sola, Florida.
The twenty-three reservations are in charge of forty-nine wardens whose duty is to guard the colonies of birds upon them.

Through the means of these reservations the particular value of bird refuges has been demonstrated and must appeal to all enlightened citizens and true sportsmen who wish to see the birds saved from utter extinction. The most numerous species in the colonies on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts are herons and ducks. Upon the interior reservations are terns, white pelicans, grebes and gulls, and on the Pacific coast, cormorants, puffins, murre, gulls and petrels.

It is probable that a deputy warden will be appointed at Port Orange or New Smyrna. The new reservation is in charge of Captain B. J. Paetiti.

No trespassing is allowed nor firearms permitted on the Mosquito Inlet Reservation. It may be well to publish here with Public Art. No. 314, "An Act to protect birds and their eggs in game and bird preserves."

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled that it shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, willfully disturb or kill any bird of any kind whatever, or take the eggs of such birds on any lands of the United States which have been set apart or reserved for breeding ground for birds by any law, proclamation or executive order, except under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of Agriculture."

The second section of this Act prescribes the fine which may be imposed for violation. It may be $500 and six months imprisonment, and was approved by Theodore Roosevelt June 28, 1906.

ANGRY MUSSELMEN SEEK REVENGE

[By United Press.]

CALCUTTA, India, Jan. 6.—Calcutta is aroused to frantic fury by the de-secration of the Temple by a Titagim mob, which cast the deepest insult possible on the Mohammedans by throwing a dead pig into Mohammedan's sepulcher.

Hordes are pouring towards the city bent on exterminating the offenders.

British troops and constabulary of neighboring towns have been rushed to the scene to guard the Hindus against the angry Mussulmen swarms.

In the event of a clash there will undoubtedly be an uprising. The situation is ominous.

GADSDEN HARPER DIES IN THE CANAL ZONE.

Balboa Lodge of Las Cascades Sends Notification To Fountain City Lodge.

Balboa Lodge No. 4, K. of P., of Las Cascades, Panama Canal Zone, recently notified Fountain City Lodge No. 56, K. of P., of this city, of the death of a member, Gadsden Harper, and that the body had been sent home.

Young Harper was a son of Noah Harper of Tomoka settlement and was accidentally killed at some point on the Panama canal on or about December 20.
He was 25 or 26 years of age.

The remains arrived at Ormond Monday and were buried beside those of his n other in Tomoka cemetery Tuesday morning.

A committee from Fountain City lodge composed of W. M. Moore, C. B.
Gailer, W. S. Edwards and A. K. Brokaw, drove to the Harper home, seventeen mile northwest of Daytona, Sunday, to tender the sympathy of the lodge, and to offer any assistance within their power.

DON'T THROW PAPERS OUT ON THE STREET.

If You Do, Five Almighty Dollars Will Be Required As The Penalty.

Take a look at the streets and parking in the vicinity of the postoffice; look at the rubbish, mostly papers, from Bellevue to Fairview, on Beach, and look at Volusia, especially near Beach, —in fact, on a number of streets about the city, and you will agree that the City Marshal will be warranted in calling a halt on the careless paper throwers.

Marshal Myers has determined that this sort of carelessness shall cease, and from this on he is going to do some "pinching." Who will be the first to "cough up" for the benefit of the city coffers? It will not take long to stop this reprehensible practice; two or three times imposed will beat columns of exhortations from the Daily News requesting that you desist.

This is written as a warning, the News having had a tip that the ordinance forbidding such practice will be enforced, beginning NOW. By the way, this would be a pretty good time to subscribe for the Daily News; read it, and it will help you to keep out of trouble.

CATCHING BLUEFISH BY MUSIC STRAINS.

An Innovation Introduced By Henry Schmidt, Conrad Stubenbord and Others.

Catching bluefish to the strains of a Victor talking machine is something entirely new, and the idea is due to the fertile brains of Henry Schmidt, Conrad Stubenbord, James Stubenbord, Ernest Kreitzburg, William Kreitzburg, William Rendsburg, P. J. Doyle, Mr. Witt-comb and others who, aboard the fleet Ernestine, were down under the shadow of the big lighthouse yesterday angling for a string of the finny tribe.

The genial fishermen give it out that they kept a Victor machine singing all the time, and attribute their great success to the sweet strains of music, but their Daytona friends, who were wise to the contents of their lockers when they left don't take much stock in the music theory, intimating that the fishermen either blew their breath on the bait, or, perhaps, dipped the bait in something the fish liked.

However this may be, they got the fish, bringing back 104, some of them whoppers. They enjoyed themselves, if many of their biggest fish did get away, and are relating some pretty clever fish stories.

PERSONNEL OF THE POSTOFFICE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith With An Efficient Corps, Constitute Strong Staff.

POSTMASTER SMITH'S RECORD.

W. C. Smith, whose recommendation to be postmaster at Daytona was sent to Congress by the President Monday, is a Georgian by birth having come to Florida in 1896.

He has been in the postal service since 1891, first in the railway mail and since in postoffices. Previous to coming to Daytona in October, 1905, he was for two years or more in the Palm Beach office, so he has had the experience in tourist business to fit him for efficient service.

Mrs. Smith, who will assist him in the office this winter, has had several years experience and will add to the strength of the force.

L. J. Cowan, chief clerk, has been in the local office for several years and his efficiency is attested by his regular promotions.

W. A. Roxby, the accommodating general delivery clerk, is on his second season in that position and is making good with the public.

C. J. Messing is in his first season as dispatching clerk and his record so far shows that he is careful and painstaking.

Henry Williams, the stamp clerk, is also in his first season but from indications his work will be satisfactory both to the public and to the service.

Taken as a whole the force looks to be able and we bespeak for the public a most satisfactory service under the new management.

Home Loving Montenegrins.
Nowhere is love of country more intense than among the Montenegrins, to whom exile is the greatest of punishments. When W. J. Stillman was there in the seventies all the free men were away fighting, and he observed that when a messenger was wanted the official took a man out of the prison and sent him off, with no fear that he would not return. One such messenger was sent to Cattaro, in Austrian territory, with a large sum of money for the bank, and he duly came back. Another asked a Russian at Cattaro to intercede with Prince Nicholas for his release from prison. "But you are not in prison," said the Russian. "Oh," said the man, "I have only come down for a load of skins for So-and-so, but I must go into prison again when I get back to Cetinje." One prison guard watched all the prisoners when they sunned themselves out of doors, and if he was called away a prisoner would take his rifle and act as sentry for the time.

Abroad.
Abroad is a locality entirely surrounded by seasickness. In another view it is a bourne more or less mysterious, bounded on its farther side by your income and on its hither side by custom houses where you have to declare everything you bring back with you except a foreign accent and one change of hosiery.

Abroad is where—
1. They put
a. Labels all over your luggage and
b. It all over you.
2. You are almost always going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and the good Samaritan invariably wants a tip.

Abroad is the stage of history, but that is only because history made the too common mistake of not seeing America first.—Puck.

The Modern
Seven Wonders
Daytona's incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pelucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchanting Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood Avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked liveoaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous ferns which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.
Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.
Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.
And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and prickled ears.
For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile. Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.
The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuctoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.
Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.
This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

THE OLD BAY STATE IS HERE IN FORCE.
That Daytona's Little Daily Is Read Up In Massachusetts Is Evident.

A most representative delegation, and one that Daytona is proud to number among her winter residents, is that of Massachusetts. Marcus H. Rogers, who is always ready to put in a good word for the balmy Daytona district, forwards the Daily News a copy of the Springfield, Mass., Union, of December 31, which has this to say:

"It is said that nearly 100 people from Springfield and its immediate vicinity spend the winter months in the three places grouped under the name of Daytona, in Florida. And that city and the two adjoining places, having a population in the summer of only a few thousand, boasts of having nearly nine miles of the most perfect concrete walks that can be found anywhere. They are on the residence streets, five and one-half feet wide, and the materials for construction are so convenient that it only costs 10 cents a square foot to build them. That seems a commendable way to 'advertise' a Florida town."

The Pole Star.
Ursa Major and Ursa Minor are known also as the Greater and Lesser Wain. It is curious to note that the larger constellation was given the figure of a bear by the Arabs and by the Troquois red men. The assumed forms are ordinarily fanciful, and the identity of the names in this instance affords food for speculation. Homer uses both bear and wain (wagon) in his references to these stars. It is evident that the name bear was a translation from some original Aryan language, as the constellation is called in Sanskrit riksha, a word that in different genders means both a bear and a star. Of course the polar star in the tail of Ursa Minor is the constellation's point of glory. In this case we may say fairly that the tail was the dog, because the group of stars was once called the dog's tail, or cynosure. From that we have our word cynosure, that toward which all eyes turn, as to the dog's tail for sight of the pole star.—Minneapolis Tribune.

How Nora Coaxed the Tip.
A group of women were standing in the corridor of a summer hotel when an aged scrubwoman started upstairs with a pail of water. Just then a bright faced, buxom Irish chambermaid came up.
"This looks pretty heavy for the likes of ye," she said cheerily to the old woman. "Better let me help."
She took up the pail and whisked off upstairs with it.
"How thoughtful of Nora!" "Isn't she kind?" and similar expressions rose to the lips of the women. The proprietor of the hotel and another man also witnessed the incident.
"Clever girl, that Nora," said the hotel man to his companion. "She's always doing something like that when there are people looking on. She gets more tips than any two other girls in the house. She could afford to pay me for the privilege of working here. Every summer she makes enough to spend the winter in idleness at her old home in Ireland."—New York Tribune.

Oddities of Color Blindness.
Color blindness, or the inability to distinguish certain colors, is by no means rare. Incomplete color blindness is when a person cannot distinguish one of the fundamental colors, red, green or violet. If a person is told to select colors resembling violet, he will if red blind usually select blues as well as violets. If he is green blind, he will select green or gray, with possibly some blues and violets of the bluest shades. Violet blindness is rare. To a red blind person the American flag appears to have green and white stripes, while the white stars appear on a violet field. To a green blind person the stripes have the proper colors, but the field for the stars is red violet. To a violet blind person the stripes are normal, but the stars appear to be set in a dark brownish gray field. To a person who is totally color blind the blue of the flag appears a light yellowish brown, while the red stripes seem to be a darker brown.

An Idol Shattered.
Some one has said that people that are fond of hero worship should never make a pilgrimage to see the hero. Here is an instance:
An enthusiastic young lady admirer called on her favorite author. In speaking of her visit she said: "I'm sorry I saw him. He didn't look at all like an author no long wavy hair; no dreamy expression; no eyes fixed on the stars as if he read the secrets of the heavens; no musical low voice—nothing to suggest the genius. No, I found him leaning on the garden gate, in his shirt sleeves, swearing at a grocery boy." And his hair was close cropped, and he looked as if he hadn't shaved in a week. He was the most terribly human specimen I ever saw."—Atlanta Constitution.
